Christmas is coming - and you should too!

Is it ok to give an orgasm as a gift? Of course, it is! As we head into the winter months, the season of gift-giving is upon us and after what has been a difficult year for many, a special gift that raises a smile, could be exactly what we all need. Sexual wellness brand Satisfyer is here to deliver exactly that, with its range of app enabled devices that is guaranteed to ensure you take both #XmasNextLevel and #LoveNextLevel.

We've all been there, the 'what to get your loved ones for Christmas' dilemma, however, look no further, as Satisfyer has the answer. Its incredible range of app products and new Satisfyer Connect app, will keep spirits high this festive season and help to beat the winter blues. Whether you want to treat yourself, a friend, or a partner, Satisfyer's sensual selection will have your twinkle-toes curling and is the perfect sexy stocking filler.

2020 has been a year like no other, so it's only fitting that it's the year in which Satisfyer have launched its multi-feature and innovative Satisfyer Connect App. This incredible free app allows everyone to take #XmasNextLevel and to connect with a partner remotely, so no matter where you are and where your partner is, you can still be intimate, a bonus for this year, as many of us can't physically be together. Key features also include Program Play, allowing you to explore pre-installed programs, Live Control, to design individual patterns and rhythms according to own preferences (with a simple stroke of the finger over the screen), and Ambient Sound and Music Vibes, for the most comprehensive multi-sensory experience possible. Music or spoken words come alive, transmitted in vibrations. Music Vibes plays streamed music (hello Spotify), or pairs with your own music library to convert your favourite songs into paralleled vibration patterns. Suddenly Jingle Bells has just gotten better!

From Satisfyer's patented signature air-pulse technology products, to couples' devices and cock rings and an array of vibrators, there is something for everyone this Christmas. It's the gift that keeps on giving!

This includes:
